The Low-Income Household Water Assistance Program is available to help families with the financial burden of drinking water and wastewater bills. Eligible households who need help with their current water bills may now receive a regular benefit. Households with past-due water bills may be eligible to receive a crisis benefit of up to $2000. Recipients who applied before October 1, 2022, may be eligible for a second crisis benefit to pay past-due water-related charges up to $2000.
